

A house makeover project at the foot of the Great Wall (traditional meets modern)

HÄFELE

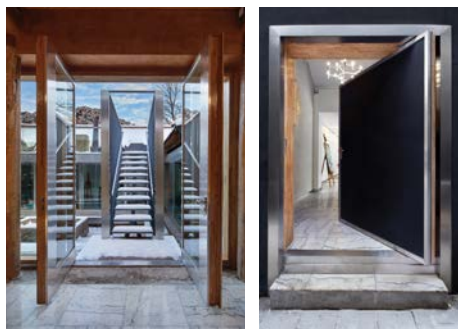

A retreat in the Mutianyu Village

The residence, a former farm house, is located at the foot of the Great Wall. The designer makes the house akin to a “回” shape by getting through different functional spaces while keeping its original structure.

- > Location: At the foot of the Great Wall
- > Designer: Christian Melz
- > Hardware supplier: Häfele

The main products:

- > Door hardware
- > Kitchen fittings
- > Bathroom fittings
- > Loox lighting

The Choice of a retreat in the Mutianyu Village

From Farm house to a roominess and stylish retreat at Mutianyu Great Wall!

Chinese traditional elements as well as German owner's requirements for functionality and light. Divers door hardware solutions: Floor spring for the entrance door, pivot hinge for the two-leaf door, the wooden sliding door fittings in bathroom entrance. The open kitchen presents some powerful solutions on storage and easiness concept, including baskets, base pull out, free flaps and LOOX Led lights.

